RE: Player Reimbursement based on Performance Policy

The Boland Golf Union encourage our players to gain additional exposure and experience by participating in Nationally recognized tournaments. The Union also understands the financial implication of participating in these events and has implemented the Re-Imbursement policy based on your finishing position, duration and location of the tournament.

Term & Conditions for claims

- Available for all Boland Affiliated male golfers in the Open, Mid-Am, Junior & Senior age categories
- Players who have claimed for Re-Imbursement based on Performance must make themselves available to represent The Boland Golf Union should they be selected for representation
- Players can only claim for Re-Imbursement on Performance for tournaments that counts towards the GolfRSA (NOoM) and subsequently the BGU Ranking within their age category
- Where a player travels to participate in more than one event, only the first event will be calculated as an away (applicable region) event and all following events will be calculated as local (Boland/WP) events
- Where a 4 round Stroke Play tournament is followed by a Match Play event, the Match Play event will be treated as a local 3-day tournament and payments will be made as follows: Winner =100%, Losing Finalist = 90%, Top 10 = 50%
- If a player is suspended from the Union on any charge, the player will be liable to pay back all monies claimed by the player for that specific season
- If the BGU paid the entry fee for the relevant tournament, this fee will be deducted from the reimbursement payment
- The Boland Golf Union will only accept claims submitted on the official claim form to the Boland Golf Union office.
